

California's Migratory Dragonflies

© Kathy Biggs. May be reprinted for non-profit use

Please report any info (some is better than none) to Kathy Biggs &/or Xerces Migratory Dragonfly Project 707-823-2911 (Call! I can be there in an hour) bigsnest@sonic.net <http://www.xerces.org/dragonfly-migration/>

Common Green Darner – female or young male

Common Green Darner – mature male © Greg Lasley

males and females have ALL green thorax females & young males show mauve on sides of abdomen; mature males show blue female's wings often show some yellowish color ~3"

© Chris Heavilin 2009

Variegated Meadowhawk – male © Chris Heavilin
may show diffuse red/orange color in wings

Variegated Meadowhawk – female © Ed Lam
may show diffuse red/orange color in wings ~1 1/2"

Black Saddlebags

© Dennis Paulson ~2"

Red Saddlebags

© Greg Lasley ~2"

Wandering Glider

© Greg Lasley ~2"

Spot-winged Glider

© Xerces Society ~2"

Twelve-spotted Skimmer Libellula puchella
Butte Creek @ Old State Highway, NE of Bray Siskiyou County, California
August 20, 2010. Dave Biggs collector male 43mm, wingspan 81mm, scan Kathy Biggs

Twelve-spotted Skimmer © Kathy Biggs ~2"

Blue-eyed Darner

© Don Roberson ~2 1/2"

